

COVID-19 Amenity Update: Toronto Lockdown

November 20, 2020

Today it was announced that Toronto will be in a lockdown status as of Monday, November 23, 2020. It is our responsibility to act decisively to reduce the speed of transmission. The Quad is required under these conditions to temporarily close our common amenity spaces, including the fitness centre, business centres, study rooms and tv/kitchen lounges. These areas will be closed starting Monday.

What can You do?

Please ensure that you are continuing to place emphasis on your personal hygiene by washing your hands properly and often, refraining from touching your face and covering coughs and sneezes. Physically distance yourself from others that don't live in your suite. Remember to wear a mask in common spaces and at times where you can't physically distance.

We understand that there is a considerable amount of uncertainty surrounding the coronavirus which may be resulting in anxiety for many. Please be reminded of the resources that are available to you:

- The Office of Student Community Relations, York University – 416.736.5231
